

KZN Public Works and the South African National Blood Service (SANBS) host the Blood Drive Day

Seen here above is Sr Francis Brookes, the Clinic Supervisor at the Midlands SANBS (left) with Mrs Jean Makhaye (right), Senior Manager: Human Resource Management during the screening process

Completion of forms before testing and blood donation. Seen here seated on the left is Mrs Fanisile Dlamini, Acting Senior Manager: Logistics assisted by Mr Mohamed Goolam, the Donor Recruiter while Mr Simphiwe Gina from the Southern Regional Office looks on with interest.

Above: Deep in thoughts "I am ready to donate" Mr Simphiwe Gina seated and ready to donate blood for a good cause.

Above is Ms Sane Khumalo , the Communications Officer for KZN Public Works wanted her part to be counted as well.
Ready to go. She seems to be frightened, isn't ????

Above is Mrs Lindiwe Mtolo, Deputy Manager: Employee Health and Wellness Programme (EHWP) also had a fair share towards supporting the Blood Drive Day.

Above is Mrs Jean Makhaye (right) while Sr Brookes does her testing

Above: Mrs Makhaye in full support of the programme while her Personal Assistant Ms Zanele Khumalo finalising to complete her forms.

Officials from SANBS were ready for the day's work. Above on the left is Ms Ntombi Zimu, the Phlebotomist (responsible for the drawing of the blood and the use of the needles and other equipment while Mr Mohamed Goolam shares a chat.